GUTTENBURG KACE TRACE, May 2 .- The hot weather was mainly responsible for the large crowd at Guttenburg to-day, for the card was iot especially attractive and quite a number of scratches lessened still further the interest In several of the events.

There were 5,000 people present and every one felt that the cool breeze that swept through the grand stand was well worth the money even if the races did not look any too well.

Appearances are often decetrul, however, and the process eard often produces the most exciting finishes.

The track was in good condition to produce fast time, it being hard and dry.

The sport began with a dash of seven furogs, with Little Jake the favorite. Brussels was a strong second choice, and was played so heavily that Little Jake's price receded to sweetbread, who has been winning races right along, was quoted at 8 to 1. The shrowd ones got abourd of the latter likely mid, rounding it down to 4 to 1, landed a por What of rangey. Sweetbread won all the way, sels and Pelham finished as named.
